

TRAVEL CONSENT LETTER FOR MINOR(S)

Complex Multi-Leg — Instructions

READ BEFORE USING THIS TEMPLATE

This is a generic self-help template for less common scenarios — multiple children, multiple destinations or legs, a sole consenting parent, a court-appointed guardian, or an airline unaccompanied-minor arrangement. It is not legal advice. It is not guaranteed to be accepted by any specific border officer, airline, embassy, consulate, or foreign authority. Whether this template fits your situation is a legal question. If the minor's situation involves a custody dispute, sole custody, a deceased parent, an active custody proceeding, or competing court orders, consult a licensed family-law attorney before signing.

How to use this template

SCOPE: This is the "Complex Multi-Leg" version. It contains alternative blocks (marked A / B / C, D / E / F) — keep only the one that fits the situation and delete the others. It also contains repeatable blocks (additional children, additional flight legs, second acknowledgment) — duplicate or delete as needed.

SIMPLER OPTION: If travel involves one minor, one accompanying adult, one destination country, and one return-by date, the "Standard Round-Trip" version is simpler and easier to fill in.

CLIENT: Open in Word, "Save As" with the family name and travel date (for example "Smith_TravelConsent_2026-07-15.docx"). Read each choose-one section, keep the block that applies, and delete the blocks that do not. Fill in the blanks in the block(s) you keep. Print single-sided. Do not sign until you are in front of a Notary Public.

NOTARY: Identify each signer per California ID requirements, have them sign in your presence, then complete the California All-Purpose Acknowledgment on the last page. Journal each signer. If signers appear at different times or locations, use a separate acknowledgment for each — a second acknowledgment page is included.

APOSTILLE: For Hague Convention destinations requiring an Apostille: acknowledge the signature(s), then the document goes to the California Secretary of State. Do not staple the acknowledgment(s) to the letter — keep them as separate pages that can be apostilled.
