

TRAVEL CONSENT LETTER FOR MINOR

Standard Round-Trip — Instructions

READ BEFORE USING THIS TEMPLATE

This is a generic self-help template. It is not legal advice. It is not guaranteed to be accepted by any specific border officer, airline, embassy, consulate, or foreign authority. Whether this template fits your situation is a legal question. If the minor's situation involves a custody dispute, sole custody, a deceased parent, unusual travel arrangements, or competing court orders, consult a licensed family-law attorney before signing.

How to use this template

SCOPE: This is the "Standard Round-Trip" version — one minor, one accompanying adult, one destination country, one return-by date. If travel involves multiple countries, multiple accompanying adults on different legs, or split custody arrangements, use the "Complex Multi-Leg" version instead.

CLIENT: Open in Word, "Save As" with the family name and travel date (for example "Smith_TravelConsent_2026-07-15.docx"), then fill in the blanks. Print single-sided. Do not sign until you are in front of a Notary Public.

NOTARY: Identify each signer per California ID requirements, have them sign in your presence, then attach the California All-Purpose Acknowledgment on the last page. Journal each signer. If both parents sign at different times or locations, use a separate acknowledgment for each signature.

APOSTILLE: For Hague Convention destinations requiring an Apostille: acknowledge the signature(s), then the document goes to the California Secretary of State. Do not staple the acknowledgment to the letter — keep it as a separate page that can be apostilled.
